Name: Samuel JONES

Personal Details:
Born 1746 in London.

Position on board: Able Seaman

Biographical Summary:
He joined the Endeavour on 30 May 1768.
On 12 April 1769, Charles Clerke recorded that Jones received twelve lashes for disobedience at Tahiti.
On 13 November 1769, Cook noted that Samuel Jones, “having been confined on Saturday last for refusing to come upon deck when all hands were called, and afterwards refused to comply with the orders of the officer on deck, he was this morning punished with twelve lashes and remitted back to confinement.”

After being discharged from Endeavour in July 1771, he obtained employment as a boatman, in and around Execution Dock, London.
He then went on a voyage to Greenland, presumably on a whaler.
By January 1786, he was writing to Joseph Banks asking for his help in obtaining a shore position.
