Name: James JOYCE

Personal Details:
No personal details are known.

Position On-Board: A.B. seaman

Biographical Summary:
Joyce was one of 19 men taken on board at Batavia. Initially they were classed as “supernumeraries”, and were not part of the ship’s crew. But Cook had lost 7 men to dysentery whilst at Batavia, and when he sailed from that port, 40 more of his crew were sick. More crew died as Endeavour crossed the Indian Ocean, so Cook transferred the 19 men from Batavia into the ship’s crew.

Joyce survived the voyage home from Batavia, but his subsequent whereabouts are not known.
